

HE HAMPTON EQUIPMENT INC.

CUSTOMIZED BED INSERT

Bed insert must be custom manufactured to agency supplied measurements of 1 ton vehicle being used.

The Manufacturer will supply the exact detailed blue print of the measurements needed for the 1 ton vehicle being used.

Channel iron used on main frame rails and size of material will be determined according to height requirement.

Main frame rails will be located on 34 inch centers

Cross members will be 7 gauge steel and placed 20 inches spacing segments

Support wall members will be constructed of 7 gauge steel placed on 20 inch spacing segments.

11 gauge steel will be used throughout main body

Bed insert will have stake pockets built into tarp rails

Bed insert will have tail gate assembly located in the rear bed insert wall at the correct height to accommodate Spray Injection Road Repair operations

Primary color is black

Must be delivered to agency